

April 21, 2013 Morning

Pastor Jesse Waggoner

The Lure of Legalism Colossians 2:16-23

As you determine what you should or should not do,
you must begin with Christ

1. Focus on the person of Christ, not human activities (vs. 16-17)

- A. We can overemphasize the picture
- B. We can underemphasize the point

Passionate worship connects you to the Person

2. Focus on the authority of Christ, not human accomplishments (vs. 18-19)

- A. We can overemphasize how much we know
- B. We can underemphasize how little we know

Biblical knowledge connects you to authority

3. Focus on the gift of Christ, not human regulations (vs. 20-23)

- A. We can step back into bondage
- B. We cannot restrict the flesh with rules

Trafficking in the Gospel connects you to the gift

Conclusion: In every issue of life start with Jesus

April 21, 2013 Morning

Pastor Jesse Waggoner

The Lure of Legalism Colossians 2:16-23

As you determine what you should or should not do,
you must begin with Christ

1. Focus on the person of Christ, not human activities (vs. 16-17)

- A. We can overemphasize the picture
- B. We can underemphasize the point

Passionate worship connects you to the Person

2. Focus on the authority of Christ, not human accomplishments (vs. 18-19)

- A. We can overemphasize how much we know
- B. We can underemphasize how little we know

Biblical knowledge connects you to authority

3. Focus on the gift of Christ, not human regulations (vs. 20-23)

- A. We can step back into bondage
- B. We cannot restrict the flesh with rules

Trafficking in the Gospel connects you to the gift

Conclusion: In every issue of life start with Jesus