

December 30, 2012 Morning

Pastor Jesse Waggoner

A Short History of Time

As we mark the passage of time, we must mark the place of God in our lives.

1. Historically, time marks the creation of God
(Gen. 1:1, 14-15)

Suggestion: Speak to Him first and last

2. Personally, time marks the care of God
(Isa. 40:6-8, Psa. 31:15)

Suggestion: Learn to catch Him in the act of caring

3. Prophetically, time marks the culmination of God's plan
(Gal. 4:4, Eph. 1:10, Rev. 22:5,7)

Suggestion: Let every reminder of getting older bring a smile to your face

Conclusion: Are you spending your time pursuing His goals or yours?

December 30, 2012 Morning

Pastor Jesse Waggoner

A Short History of Time

As we mark the passage of time, we must mark the place of God in our lives.

1. Historically, time marks the creation of God
(Gen. 1:1, 14-15)

Suggestion: Speak to Him first and last

2. Personally, time marks the care of God
(Isa. 40:6-8, Psa. 31:15)

Suggestion: Learn to catch Him in the act of caring

3. Prophetically, time marks the culmination of God's plan
(Gal. 4:4, Eph. 1:10, Rev. 22:5,7)

Suggestion: Let every reminder of getting older bring a smile to your face

Conclusion: Are you spending your time pursuing His goals or yours?