

Sept. 10, 2017 Morning

Pastor Jesse Waggoner

A Promise-Based Life Acts 1:4-11

Promised-based living frees you from
misguided life

- 1. Live by the promise of His authority
- 2. Live by the promise of His power
- 3. Live by the promise of your purpose
- 4. Live by the promise of His return

Is your life guided by His promises?

Sept. 10, 2017 Morning

Pastor Jesse Waggoner

A Promise-Based Life Acts 1:4-11

Promised-based living frees you from
misguided life

- 1. Live by the promise of His authority
- 2. Live by the promise of His power
- 3. Live by the promise of your purpose
- 4. Live by the promise of His return

Is your life guided by His promises?

Themes and Theology of Acts

Luke is often neglected as a theologian. This is unfortunate because he has a very developed theology and also wrote a larger portion of the New Testament than any other author.

The main theological emphasis of the book of Acts is the Holy Spirit. The book begins with Jesus' promise of the Holy Spirit, which is later fulfilled in reference to the Jews (ch. 2), and then for the Gentiles (ch. 10). Reference to the Holy Spirit comes in a variety of ways. Many of the occurrences are references to a person being filled with the (Holy) Spirit: 2:4; 4:8, 31; 9:17; 13:9, and 52. Luke also equates the Holy Spirit with God (cf. 5:3 with 5:4), and the Holy Spirit directly intervened in Paul's life (16:6-7).

Join a Group Study for this Series

Many of our LifeGroups are using this sermon series as the basis for their discussion. If you would like to get connected to find a group to participate with, please contact Pastor Stotler astotler@calvarywv.com to learn more.

Use this link to download a discussion guide to lead you deeper into God's Word.

<http://www.calvarywv.com/series/unleashed>

Reading for Next Week

Acts 1:12-26

Themes and Theology of Acts

Luke is often neglected as a theologian. This is unfortunate because he has a very developed theology and also wrote a larger portion of the New Testament than any other author.

The main theological emphasis of the book of Acts is the Holy Spirit. The book begins with Jesus' promise of the Holy Spirit, which is later fulfilled in reference to the Jews (ch. 2), and then for the Gentiles (ch. 10). Reference to the Holy Spirit comes in a variety of ways. Many of the occurrences are references to a person being filled with the (Holy) Spirit: 2:4; 4:8, 31; 9:17; 13:9, and 52. Luke also equates the Holy Spirit with God (cf. 5:3 with 5:4), and the Holy Spirit directly intervened in Paul's life (16:6-7).

Join a Group Study for this Series

Many of our LifeGroups are using this sermon series as the basis for their discussion. If you would like to get connected to find a group to participate with, please contact Pastor Stotler astotler@calvarywv.com to learn more.

Use this link to download a discussion guide to lead you deeper into God's Word.

<http://www.calvarywv.com/series/unleashed>

Reading for Next Week

Acts 1:12-26