

September 16, 2012 Evening

Pastor Jesse Waggoner

Living Without Offense

Matthew 17:22-27

We must avoid unnecessary offense

- 1. We should expect the potential for offense
 - A. Others are quick to take offense
 - B. Others are looking for offense
- 2. We should be motivated by His position
 - A. We surrender our rights for His glory
 - B. We surrender our rights so others can see Him
- 3. We should be instructed by His example
 - A. He gave up everything for us
 - B. We should give up something for others
- 4. We should look for His provision
 - A. He can make a way in any circumstance
 - B. He can make up for our loss

Conclusion:

Be willing to pay the cost of avoiding offense

September 16, 2012

Pastor Jesse Waggoner

Living Without Offense

Matthew 17:22-27

We must avoid unnecessary offense

- 1. We should expect the potential for offense
 - A. Others are quick to take offense
 - B. Others are looking for offense
- 2. We should be motivated by His position
 - A. We surrender our rights for His glory
 - B. We surrender our rights so others can see Him
- 3. We should be instructed by His example
 - A. He gave up everything for us
 - B. We should give up something for others
- 4. We should look for His provision
 - A. He can make a way in any circumstance
 - B. He can make up for our loss

Conclusion:

Be willing to pay the cost of avoiding offense