

June 2 , 2013 Evening

Pastor Jesse Waggoner

Story One: Jeremiah 13:1-11

The Strange Factor:

Prophet travels 300 miles to bury his laundry

The Underlying Meaning:

- Israel was meant to be priests
- Israel failed to confess sins
- Israel passed the point of return

The Lessons for Us:

1. We are naturally influenced by our environment
2. Confess as soon as sin is discovered

Story Two: Jeremiah 27: 1-22

The Strange Factor:

Prophet acting like an ox

The Underlying Meaning:

- Israel should not resist the work of God
- Israel should believe what God has spoken

The Lessons for Us:

1. Be thankful for His work of restoration
2. Be cooperative with His plan

June 2 , 2013 Evening

Pastor Jesse Waggoner

Story One: Jeremiah 13:1-11

The Strange Factor:

Prophet travels 300 miles to bury his laundry

The Underlying Meaning:

- Israel was meant to be priests
- Israel failed to confess sins
- Israel passed the point of return

The Lessons for Us:

1. We are naturally influenced by our environment
2. Confess as soon as sin is discovered

Story Two: Jeremiah 27: 1-22

The Strange Factor:

Prophet acting like an ox

The Underlying Meaning:

- Israel should not resist the work of God
- Israel should believe what God has spoken

The Lessons for Us:

1. Be thankful for His work of restoration
2. Be cooperative with His plan