

September 29 , 2013 Evening

Pastor Jesse Waggoner

Curious Creatures (Part 2)

Lessons for Us:

1. Job desires to question God (Job 23:1-7)
2. God questions Job (Job 38-41)
3. Job responds to God's questions
with silence (40:3-5)
with submission (42:1-6)

The Strange Factor:

God mentions two animals with fantastic qualities

The Underlying Meaning:

Behemoth (40:15-24)

Leviathan (Job 41)

Option #1: Imaginary animals

Option #2: Poetic descriptions of known animals
(hippopotamus, crocodile)

Option #3: Extinct animals that were alive in Job's time
(Brachiosaurus, Mosasaurus / Liopleurodon)

Conclusion:

To choose the right option, go back to the lessons above

September 29 , 2013 Evening

Pastor Jesse Waggoner

Curious Creatures (Part 2)

Lessons for Us:

1. Job desires to question God (Job 23:1-7)
2. God questions Job (Job 38-41)
3. Job responds to God's questions
with silence (40:3-5)
with submission (42:1-6)

The Strange Factor:

God mentions two animals with fantastic qualities

The Underlying Meaning:

Behemoth (40:15-24)

Leviathan (Job 41)

Option #1: Imaginary animals

Option #2: Poetic descriptions of known animals
(hippopotamus, crocodile)

Option #3: Extinct animals that were alive in Job's time
(Brachiosaurus, Mosasaurus / Liopleurodon)

Conclusion:

To choose the right option, go back to the lessons above