

What a Savior Isaiah 53:1-12

Main Idea: God calls us to see the wonder of our Savior

Connect: Make a list of words that communicate strength and authority. Make a list of words that communicate weakness and submission. Discuss how both sets of words apply or do not apply to Jesus.

Discuss

1. Based upon the sermon & text what question(s), insight, or observation did you find to be most helpful, insightful or troubling? Please explain ...
2. Isaiah 53 was written several hundred years before Jesus was born. How does the specific nature of these prophecies increase your confidence in God's Word?
3. What can you learn about handling trials through observing and learning from Jesus' example?
4. How does this passage bring you reassurance to you of God's forgiveness and love?
5. Read 1 Peter 2:21-25. How does Christ's example speak to your situation? How is your behavior going to different because of what you see in Jesus' character in this passage

Application

- When wrongly accused, Jesus did not respond verbally. There are times to speak, but there are also times to remain quiet. Learn to discern when it is time to remain silent

Live it Out

- Read Phil. 2:1-11; Matt. 11:29; Luke 6:27-36; Heb. 12:3; 1 Pet. 3:9. How does seeing the example of Jesus stir praise for His goodness, righteousness, strength in humility, and patience in your heart? What do you need to model during this season from His life? Ask the Spirit to make you like Jesus.
